8% Social Security pay boost on way

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Monthly Social Security and Supplemental Security Income checks for 35 million persons will increase by 8 per cent in July, the government announced Friday.

It will be the first automatic cost-ofliving increase to take effect for 31 million Social Security beneficiaries and 4 million aged, blind and disabled persons under the SSI — a package of benefit increases that will total $5.7 bil-'lion the first year.

Because of a slowdown in the rate of inflation, the automatic increase is less than had been anticipated. Earlier predictions indicated it could be as high as 8.7 per cent. The increase is linked to increases in the Consumer Price Index.

The increase will take effect in June and will be paid in checks received in July.

In announcing the increase, which is required by law, the administration re-newed its opposition and asked Congress to reduce it to 5 per cent as President Ford proposed in his fiscal 1976 budget, at a cost of $3.5 billion.

"The additional $2.2 billion that will be required if Congress refuses to adopt the President's proposal will be a direct addition to the already large budget deficit," said Secretary Caspar Weinberger of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. "I strongly urge the Congress to enact the President's proposal ..."

— Mandatory jail terms urged —

Ford opens crime fight

By PHILIP SHABECOFF New York Times Service

NEW HAVEN - Declaring that violent crime "obsesses America," President Ford Friday night called for mandatory jail terms for those convicted of violent crimes.

Speaking at the 150th anniversary celebration of his alma mater, Yale Law School, the President declared that "I am urging that virtually all of those convicted of a violent crime should be sent to prison."

"And, this should be continued, especially if a gun was involved or there was other substantial danger or injury to a person or persons.'

"There certainly should be imprisonment if the convicted person has a prior record of convictions," the President declared in a speech reminiscent of recent election campaigns on both the national and local levels.

men and women was not typical of a political rally, however. Virtually all alumni of the law school, the audience included two Supreme Court Justices, Potter Stewart and Byron White; Carla Anderson Hills, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development; Gov. Ella T. Grasso of Connecticut and Sen. Gary Hart of Colorado.

Ford, the first Yale Law School graduate to become President, was warmly welcomed at the dinner inside a wood-paneled dining hall where Yale freshman usually eat. But, outside, in a drizzle, about 500 students and local residents picketed and chanted on various issues including Vietnam, Cyprus and unemployment. The protest, however, lacked the anger of past college demonstrations. Ford ushered in another entrance of the dining hall, did not even see the demonstrators.

In his speech, which Presidential Press Secreticipates a presidential message to Congress in about a month, Ford de-clared that "if we take the crime rates as an indication," the nation was failing to "provide the domestic tranquility which the Constitution seeks."

"Today — as President of our nation — I sense, and I think the American people sense, that we are facing a basic and serious problem of disregard of

Desperate bid to spare Saigon

S. Viet chief offers to resign

By GEORGE ESPER

SAIGON (AP) - President Tran Van Huong, in a desperate bid to spare Sai-gon from attack, offered today to resign in favor of a leader acceptable to the Communist-led forces threatening the city

Speaking to a joint session of the National Assembly, Hueng indicated he would step aside in favor of retired Gen. Duong Van (Big) Minh, who is considered to be a neutralist agreeable to the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese.

If the assembly should accept Huong's resignation it could then name Minh president. Minh earlier had refused to accept the premiership under Huong.

Sources close to Minh have said he would call for an immediate cease-fire should he assume the Senate OKs Viet 'mercy aid'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate quickly approved the new $327 million Vietnam aid bill Friday, authorizing a limited military evacuation if necessary but also urging President Ford to get all Americans out of Saigon "forthwith."

The Senate passed the compromise mercy aid bill only four hours after it had been formally approved by House and Senate conferees, but the legislation faced days of further delay before Ford can sign it into law.

presidency and appoint a "cabinet of reconiliation" headed by a Catholic politician and ex-Senate President Nguyen Van Huyen. Huong told the assembly that if he remains as president he must have the power to form a "gov-ernment of negotiation." He has been president only since Monday, replac-ing Nguyen Van Thieu who resigned under pressure from the United States because the Viet Cong said they would not negotiate with him. The Communist leaders subsequently refused to talk with the 71-year-old Huong, accusing him of being a puppet of Thieu and the U.S.

Informed sources said that Thieu, his wife and 15 other Vietnamese flew today to Taipei, where Thieu's brother is serving as ambassador.

Huong told the legislators that "We have now been abandoned (by the United States) and it is clear our friends do not want to help us anymore. We now have no other choice but to negotiate."

Huong left the assembly after a 10-minute address, and the lawmakers began debating his proposals.

There was a battlefield full as the Communist leaders apparently waited on political developments

The Senate vote was 46 to 17.

Vietnam turned down a request by the Huong administration to have a cabinetlevel minister fly to Hanoi to initiate negotiations. The minister had been packed to fly north on the weekly U.S Air Force liaison flight that was held up for two hours until the North Vietnamese delegation to the joint military commission in Saigon said no.

"The Vietnamese answered the request by saying there is nothing to talk the official said, and suggested I contact the Viet Cong delegation on the matter." He added that the Viet Cong representatives did not indicate any interest in negotiations at this time.

. It had been reported earlier that the South Vietnamese cabinet minister had made direct contact with lower level North Vietnamese delegates and that the U.S. was trying to promote the arrangement.

The head of the Viet Cong delegation in Saigon also had been invited to go aboard the liaison flight to Hanoi but he "responded very dryly that he was not interested and renewed his side's hard-line demands for a total change in Saigon," the official said. Huong, the vice presi-

Drunk bungles hijack

HIJACKING SUSPECT Frank Page Covey of Richmond, Va., is placed in police car at Atlanta Airport Friday night after attempt to commandeer plane for flight

By STANLEY DARDEN

ATLANTA (UPI) - A drunk who wanted to see Fidel Castro on his vacation commandeered a jetliner with 67 persons aboard Friday night by claiming he had a bomb in his bag, but he wound up alone in the plane holding the bag and waiting for the FBI.

The fiasco aboard United Airlines flight 344 bound from Raleigh, N.C., to Newark, N.J., began over Washington at 7 p.m. It ended less than two hours later on an unused runway in Atlanta when agents escorted off the plane a man identified as Francis Page Covey, 43, of Richmond, Va.

asked an elderly lady at Covey's home. "I thought he was going to Florida."

It was the first domestic attempt at a hijacking this year. The last successful hijacking in the United States

Passengers said Covey was drunk when he boarded the plane at Raleigh and got drunker as the flight proceeded north. He suddenly arose, his hands inside a flight bag, told a stewardess he had nitrogylcerin in it and demanded to be taken to Cuba. Then he lurched back to the coach section and announced "Be calm, folks, we are all going to go for a ride." A stewardess had to help him back to a seat, passengers said, and returned to announce primly that the man had had to much to drink. Nonetheless, the crew took him seriously and asked to be allowed to land for refueling. Covey told them to land in Atlanta. When the plane landed, he told the 61 passengers and three stewardesses to get off through the rear ramp. The three-man flight crew, he ordered, would stay aboard.

However, Covey apparently became muddled in the confusion of debarking and the pilot, R.A. Branch,

Senate OKs $6 billion emergency job package

WASHINGTON (UPI) -The Senate Friday approved a $6 billion emergency package to provide an estimated one million jobs in the face of increasing unemployment.

The Senate bill is about $141 million larger than the one passed by the House and Senate-House negotiators will have to work out a compromise. But the final package faces an almost certain veto by President Ford.

Administration spokesman wanted the total held to $2 billion, all in public service jobs. The Senate bill would provide about 310,000 public service jobs, through June of 1976, at a cost of $1.6 billion.

A variety of other direct job programs would create 920,000 summer youth jobs and about 250,-000 part-time jobs for college students.

$1 billion surplus

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The nation's balance of foreign trade was a record $1.38 billion in surplus last month because of an unprecedented decline in oil imports, the Commerce Department said Friday.

Oil imports have dropped 58 per cent from a record high level of 285 million barrels valued at $3.3 billion in January to 119 million barrels valued at $1.4 billion in March.

"We have reason to believe the decline in oil imports is one of those flukey things," said a Commerce Department spokesman.

Many oil companies stocked up in January to beat President Ford's $1 per barrel tax on Feb. 1. As a result, oil storage tanks are bulging with overstocks.

The bill provides $3.7 billion for public works projects, increases in rural water and sewer grants, fixing up veterans' hospitals, improvement of federal lands, purchase of cars, and repair and rehabilitation of railroad beds.

The Senate Appropriations Committee estimated that these projects would create about 700,000 jobs and added "large multiplier effects would also be generated." An attempt by Sen. Ben-

SANTA ROSA (UPI) -Sheriff Don Striepeke said Friday a Zodiac-style killer he believes may have murdered up to 40 women while ranging over several western states may interview his victims first to see if they should die.

Nine others escaped with $8,000 from teller's cages after failing to open the vault at the Villa Coapa branch of the Commerce Bank. Stray bullets also splattered a supermarket across the street from the bank, prompting erroneous reports that it also had been robbed.

Apartheid proposal

CAPE TOWN, South Africa-The South African government Friday proposed the removal of one of its oldest racial segregation laws which ban non-whites from using white hotels. In legislation placed before parliament, the government plans to give the justice minister powers to exempt hotels upon request from the ra-cial restrictions which prohibit blacks, coloreds-persons of mixed blood-and Indians from drinking in white bars and staying at whites-only hotels. The proposal was described by government sources as "one of the most daring experiments in lowering apartheid"—the official gov-ernment policy of separate development

$7 million robbery

LONDON - Anxious customers crowded into the Bank of America's branch in London's Mayfair district Friday after a daring robbery in which police said up to $7 million was stolen from safe deposit boxes. Most of the bank's customers are Americans, including many wealthy businessmen and show business celebrities living in Mayfair. Officials at the bank a few yards from the U.S. Embassy told all inquirers to return after police had ended their probe into the robbery which occurred Thursday night. One woman, Indonesian-born Mrs. Farida Hall, said jewelry worth $480,000—"everything I've got"— was stolen from her deposit box. MADRID - The government Friday declared a state of emergency in two northern provinces to end violence between police and Basque separatists. The move means suspension of certain civil rights in the provinces of Guipuzcoa and Vizcava where a policeman and an urban guerrilla were killed and at least two other persons injured in three separate hts since Tuesday. The Basque region has long been a center of political unrest and separatist efforts to win autonomy for the region. The measure suspends freedom of expression, free choice of the place of residence, protection from arbitrary search of homes, and the right of assembly and association. It also does away with the requirement that no Spaniard can be held for more than 72 hours unless charged with a violation of law.

Terrorists expelled

STOCKHOLM-The Swedish government early today extradited to West Germany for trial four of the five terrorists who stormed the German embassy and blew it up after a 12-hour siege in which two diplomats and one of the terrorists were killed. Prime Minister Olof Palme said there is "no advantage of having this kind of criminals here." A fifth terrorist, who is badly injured, will probably be handed over next week. A sixth terrorist involved in the embassy attack died from gunshot wounds during the siege. Swedish police were looking for several other Germans in connection with the assault on the embassy

NATIONAL Storms kill 5, injure 39

Tornadoes and violent winds lashed the Mississippi Valley Friday and flash floods triggered by heavy rains overran parts of Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio. The wild winds and high waters left at least five persons dead and 39 injured. A Pacific storm front piled up to a foot of snow on Idaho and the National Weather Service said the storm, gathering strength in the Rockies, threatened to develop into "a major weather producer" over the weekend. High winds and tornadoes swept Tennessee, killing a 5-month-old boy and injuring at least 16 other persons in five counties. Residents of Neosho, Mo., counted three dead and 23 hurt in a tornado that gouged a path through the city of 7.500 persons Thursday night causing as estimated $10 million damage. Neosho was declared a disaster area and National Guardsmen assigned to patrol

Hall gets 3 years

OKLAHOMA CITY — Former Oklahoma Gov. David Hall, who was once a erime-busting district attorney, was sentenced Friday to three years in prison for his role in a bribery-extortion scheme to influence the investment of $10 million in state retirement funds. U.S. District Judge Fred Daugherty gave the silverhaired Hall three years on each of the four counts on which the former governor was convicted by a federal court jury last month. The terms are to run concurrently. Codefendant W.W. "Doc" Taylor, a Dallas financier, was sentenced to 18 months in prison on each of the three counts on which he was convicted. Taylor's terms also will run concurrently, Both men were allowed to remain free under recognizance bonds of $10,000 each pending appeal.

Insurance plot

NEW HAVEN, Coun, - Millions of dollars in insurance benefits were behind the bombing of a sponge rubber plant that resulted in the arrest of the firm's president and a clairvoyant minister, authorities indicated Friday. "There was a good deal of insurance up there," said U.S. Atty. Peter Dorsey of Connecticut. He would not say how much, but insurance company sources said policies covered much of the loss in buildings, inventory, equipment and business. The $10 million in estimated damage was the largest loss recorded in an arson-bombing in FBI history. In Memphis, Tenn. Asst. U.S. Atty. Larry Parrish said one defendant, The Rev. David Bubar, "actu-ally helped unload the explosives, received money for it and stood to gain substantially from the insurance proceeds of the explosion.

Takeover settled

PROVIDENCE, R.I. - Black students ended their takeover of the administration building at Brown University late Friday after agreement was reached with school officials on a list of demands. The students who seized University Hall Thursday morning left the building immediately after announcement of the settlement was made. Administrators had promised the students they would be granted complete legal and academic amnesty. The university also said it would attempt to increase the number of black and Latin American students by 25 per cent over the next three years. The takeover was a protest against planned university budget cuts, which would have included a decrease in financial aid for minority students.

Hart sentenced Hansen last week to one year in jail, with 10 months suspended, following the Republican congressman's guilty pleas to two misdemeanor violations of campaign finance laws.

Hansen would have been the first sitting Con-gressman to be jailed in 19 years. He consistently has maintained that politics played a role in the charges against him and that his violations were unintentional.

Adolf Hitler's 99-piece silver service has been auctioned off at Marsh Galleries. An Indianapolis, Ind., doctor bought the service, engraved with the initials A.H., swastikas and eagles, for $32,000 on Thursday. It was one of three sets owned by the Nazi leader.

Suicide

French pop singer Mike Brandt Friday plunged to his death from a sixth floor apartment terrace in Paris's chic 16th district. Authorities were treating the case as a suicide.

The apartment belonged to a girlfriend who was taking a bath at the time," and no one witnessed the death, authorities said.

The 27-year-old singer, born Moshe Brandt on Cyprus, made an unsuccessful suicide attempt last November in Geneva. Up until his death Friday he was still recovering from injuries he suffered there when he jumped out of a hotel window:

After learning of his death, a 15-year-old fan in the eastern French city of Saint-Etienne climbed up on the roof of her school and threatened to jump. Firemen and police talked her out of it.

Truck parking

. Is it legal for a trailer-truck cab to be parked on a residential street? This happens on our block quite often and it looks awful. E.B., Long Beach.

A LITTLE LEARY. MARRIAGE IS LIKE A MIDNIGHT IA GET A ring and THEN YA WAKE UP

Commercial trucks (their cabs or trailers) may not be parked on certain city residential streets for more than two hours at a time, according to Section 3410.66 of the Long Beach Municipal Code. But what constitutes a residential street under this section has nothing to do with the zoning regulations and many streets that appear to be residential aren't considered as such under the truck parking ordinance. Gradually if more than 50 per cent of the dwellings on a block are stores, apartment houses, hotels or churches, that street is considered to be a business district and commercial trucks may park there for longer periods of time. If a street isn't considered a business district, it technically still isn't a residential street unless there are at least 13 single-family houses per quarter mile facing the street. Consequently, in many neighborhoods, there are cross streets where very few, if any, houses actually face the road, and trucks may park on these streets even though they may be in the midst of a housing tract. Because of the complicated regulations outlining what is and isn't a residential street, the truck parking prohibition often isn't enforced. But if you believe your block meets the residential street requirements, you can file a complaint about the truck cab with the Long Beach police and they will investigate the situation.

Incomplete

Can Action Line find out why the transition road from the Marina Freeway near Marina Del Rey to the southbound San Diego Freeway has never been completed? The overpass has been constructed, but the project remains unfinished. This forces motorists to travel out of their way along Centinela Boulevard to get from the Marina Freeway to the San Diego. M.H., Pacific Palisades.

It's problematical whether or not that transition road will ever be completed. The original plans for that interchange in Culver City called for the rerouting of a San Diego Freeway off-ramp to avert a possible traffic bazard, said a spokesman for the California Department of Transportation. After construction had started on the interchange; a group of Culver City businessmen, with the backing of city officials, protested the rerouting of the off-ramp, claiming it would adversely affect their businesses. It is the state's policy to allow local com-inunities a say in the location of freeway on-ramps and off-ramps, and the department of transportation agreed to postpone indefinitely the rerouting of the San Diego reeway off-ramp. Highway officials believe that with-Sout this change, there is no way to make the transition road safe, and unless the Culver City merchants alter their views, the project probably will remain at a standstill.

Marina Drive

We live in the vicinity of the new Marina Pacifica condominium development Pacific Coast Highway and Second Street and have patiently put up with the construction of a new entrance to this complex on Marina Drive. Now that it's completed, we find to our dismay that the new curbing for the street has closed off one of the two entrances on Marina Drive to the parking lot for Lucky's market and Buffums'. This forces us to enter the lot from the rear entrance on Marina Drive and we must fight all the outcoming traffic. It's also difficult to maneuver into the parking lanes from this entrance. Why couldn't they have left both driveways open? R.P., Long Beach.

City traffic and engineering officials who were in rge of redesigning that section of Marina Drive decided to eliminate the first driveway because they believed it created a traffic hazard. That entrance was located just a few yards from the intersection of Marina and Second Street, and when cars would stop suddenly to enter the first driveway, they interfered with the flow of through traffic going to the condominium complex or the boat launching ramp at the Marine Stadium, according to City Engineer Tom G. Marchese. "We feel the rear driveway is wide enough to accommodate the entering and exiting traffic, and is a much safer set-up," he said.

The sidewalk in front of the house next door to mine was replaced some time ago because it had been damaged by tree roots. The same condition exists in front of my house, but this part of the sidewalk hasn't been replaced and it's lower than the new section. Consequently, there's a dip there that collects water, and this a year-round problem. When it rains, the water and fallen leaves settle there, and during the summer, the same thing happens when people water their lawns. The city has been notified of this condition several times, but nothing has been done. Can Action Line help? L.S., Long Beach. Not much. The best we could do was to find out that the sidewalk in front of your house is scheduled to be repaired some time this year. Joseph Mabrie, head of the city's street tree trimming division, which does the sidewalk repair work, said your original complaint about the dip was recorded by his office on Sept. 6, and it takes 6 to 18 months for the city to act upon such requests for service. The city has only about 35 employes to repair all the sidewalk damage caused by tree roots, and Mabrie said he couldn't expedite the work order on your complaint without being unfair to other residents waiting for sidewalk repair. Routine tree trim-ining requests also can take a year or more to get action unless the condition is deemed a safety hazard.

People on welfare up in county

The number of persons receiving welfare cash grants in Los Angeles County rose from 577,806 in February to 581,605 in March, the Department of Public Social Services said Friday.

Department director Ellis P. Murphy said there also were increases in supplementary welfare programs.

Murphy said applications also were up, most noticeably in the number of people trying to qualify for food stamps.

WASHINGTON (AP) -President Ford asked Congress Friday to extend for nearly six years the federal revenue sharing program and authorize transfer of nearly $40 billion to state and local government during that period. Ford sent Congress a special message making the request at the same hour he was meeting with state legislative leaders, urging them to lobby on its behalf.

"IN proposing this legis-ation." Ford said in his text for a White House conference of state legislative leaders, "I am doing my part for state and local government. I hope I can count on you ... to get behind this program and make your voices heard in the Congress.

VW losses in millions

WOLFSBURG, Germany 🗗 — Volkswagen, West Germany's biggest auto manufacturer, officially announced Friday that the concern's losses last year totaled $232 million.

The announcement, which came after far-reaching plans involving dismissal of 25,000 Volkswagen workers were decided earlier this month, added that the losses reflect difficulties caused by a sales slump in the vital export markets.

Volkswagen in the past has exported 70 per cent of its vehicle production abroad, mainly to the United States.

The planned dismissals aim to shrink Volkswagen's total domestic work force to 112,000 by the end of next year as part of a bid to shrink production Il capacities back to profitarevenue sharing, due to expire at the end of 1976 so the 50 state and 39,000 local governments who benefit can plan ahead. Besides calling for continuing the program begun by the Nixon administration in 1972, Ford sought three major changes in the way revenue sharing has worked in the past:

-Require state and local governments to provide their citizens "an opportunity to give their views on how revenue sharing funds should be spent. -Authorize the Treasury secretary to cut off money, or demand repayment of funds, spent on programs found to be discriminatory. -Change distribution formulas so greater amounts can be provided to financially hard-pressed iurisdictions. The Ford proposal would continue revenue sharing until Oct. 1, 1982 - a date chosen because, by then, the start of the federal fiscal year will be moved from July 1 to Oct.

Ford said federal revenues sent to state and local governments during the five years and nine months of the extension would total $39.85 billion, increasing by $150 million annually, in part to offset inflation

'This program has been a resounding success. Ford said in his message. He said it has helped meet a problem caused by the fact that tax revenues have "grown fastest at the federal level, while needs were growing fastest at the state and local levels."

WITHIN broad limits. governmental units receiving revenue sharing money are free to spend it as they deem best. Since 1972, states have spent 52 per cent of these funds for education programs.

WASHINGTON (UPI) - As they often have in times of heavy economic wee, adult Americans hit the bottle extra hard in 1974.

The latest report of the Distilled Spirits Council says consumption of alcohol rose 2.3 per cent in 1974 compared with a growth of only 2.0 per cent for the

This may be no consolation, but the 1974 increase was a mere swallow compared with the guzzling that went on in the early depression years. The council said per capita consumption jumped 52 per cent from

The council, a trade association of the nation's liquor industry, reported total sales of $29.3 billion for alcoholic beverages in 1974, an increase of 7.9 per cent from 1973. Per capita adult consumption of alcoholic beverages was 3.11 gallons last year, up from 3.04 gallons in 1973 and on 2.9 gallons in 1969.

Despite the increased drinking rate, consumers spent less - 3.0 per cent - of their disposable income on alcoholic beverages in 1974 than any year

The percentage of disposable income spent on booze has decreased steadily since the peak of 5.9 per cept in 1947, also a recession year.

But consumers did pay a record $9 billion in lederal, state and local taxes to drink their favorite beverages in 1974. That tax bill compared with $8.8

Deregulation of air flights ripped

WASHINGTON (UPI) -Total deregulation of the airline industry could lead to abandonment er sharply curtailed flights on 1,820 unprofitable nonstop routes in the United States, the Air Transport Association reported

Responding to a request by Sen. Edward Kennedy, -Mass., the ATA said a computer study of America's air transport network showed more than half the nation's trunkline and regional nonstop routes were any two cities.

The industry association's 254-page study resulted from hearings by Kennedy's subcommittee on administrative practices about how well airline fare and route regulation by the Civil Aeronautics Board serves the interest of the public.

An array of critics ranging from consumer advocates to President Ford have called for the elimination or reduction of CAB regulation, saying present practices keep prices higher than they would be under open competition.

Industry officials say regulation is essential to keep the U.S. air network running. Kennedy asked the ATA for a study backing that up with facts and listing all cities that would be jeopordized by deregulation.

The study appeared the most potent weapon proby opponents of deregulation. An ATA official said it "may respesent the first aggregate analysis of its kind."

"Our analysis shows that under deregulation scheduled air service might be eliminated or substantially reduced on 1,820 non-stop routes throughout the nation," Vice President George W. James said in a letter sent to Kennedy with the study.

"CURRENTLY trunk carriers serve 994 nonstop routes. Of these, 372 could be candidates for elimination under deregulation, while nearly all of the re-maining 622 could experience sharp curtailment of service.

He said the ATA did not conduct a similar study on regional routes. But he noted that 826 of the nation's 2,093 regional routes now receive government subsidies because they are unprofitable, and said those also might not survive deregulation.

Study links alcoholism and sterility

PITTSBURGH (UPI) -A team of local scientists says it has found a possible link between alcoholism and sterility in men.

Dr. Joshua Perper, one of three scientists involved in a study of alcoholics in the Pittsburgh area, said many of them had atrophied testicles, pointing to a higher-than-normal likelihood of sterility among severe alcoholics.

The study was a joint effort of the University of Plitsburgh epidemiology department and the Allegheny County coroner's office.

Perper was unwilling to speculate that the tie-in between atrophy and sterility also might be related to a high rate of impotence among alcoholics.

Yanks guzzled Rate hiked for federally insured loans for homes

The government announced the first increase since last summer in the ceiling rate for federally insured home loans Friday, pushing the rate up by one-half of one per cent to 8.5 per cent. The increase, which comes despite a heavy flow of new money into the institutions which provide the bulk of home loans; marks a reversal of the steadily declining interest rates which economists had hoped would revive the crippled housing industry and help support a general economic recov-

An official of the Department of Housing and Urban Development attributed the increase to fears of home lenders that heavy Treasury borrowings to finance a record federal deficit would force interest rates up.

Since the maximum interest borrowers can pay on government insured loans is fixed by law, that means lenders demand that either home buyers or sellers make a lump-sum payment to provide a higher yield. On the basis of the aver-

The higher ceiling on government-insured loans will cut the "points" while increasing a home buyer's monthly payments by $12. That would make the monthly payment on a $35,0000 mortgage $269.

Mrs. Hills said the high level of points had discouraged home sellers from using Federal Housing Administration or Veterans Administration loans and tended to dry up money under those programs.

The increase came despite the fact that savings and loan associations have been reporting that money. flowing into savings acwithdrawals by about $3 billion a month since the first of the year.

That usually means more money for home loans and lower rates, But the savings and loans have been slow to resume lending activities.

Kearney said the savings and loans are using short-term investments, even though those investments pay lower returns than the interest rates the institutions must pay depositors. So at some point within the next 90 days said Kearney, the savings and loans will have to let go of that money.

Then interest rates might ease again, he said.

JFK autopsy reviewed in probe of CIA

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Rockefeller Commission investigating the CIA has ordered a re-examination of the autopsy of President John F. Kennedy in response to allegations that more than one assassin was involved in the murder of the late president.

Lt. Col. Robert R. McMeekin, a pathologist at the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology, and Dr. Werner U. Spitz, chief medical examiner from Wayne County (Detroit), both confirmed Friday that they were part of a team of five physicians who studied the autopsy materials recently at the National Archives at the request of the commission headed by Vice President Nelson A.

McMeekin said in an interview that the purpose of the examination was to determine whether the fatal head shot could have been fired from the front and not the rear, as the Warren Commission concluded.

McMEEKIN said he and his colleagues have not yet reported their findings to the commission, but he added that he found nothing to refute the Warren Commission's conclusion that the fatal shot was fired by Lee Harvey Oswald from the sixth floor of the Texas Book Depository in Dallas.

The reexamination of the autopsy materials apparently was prompted by allegations made both publicly and to the Rockefeller Commission by comedian-activist Dick Gregory that a film of the assassination clearly shows the President lurching violently backward after he is hit in the head, indicating that he was shot from the front.

Gregory and his associates have linked this evidence with a newspaper photograph purporting to show men resembling convicted Watergate conspirators E. Howard Hunt and Frank Sturgis at the scene of the November 1963 shooting to develop a theory that the CIA was involved in the Kennedy assassination.

McMeekin, who examined photographs and X-rays the President's wounds and viewed a film of the shooting, said he found no evidence of an entrance wound on the front of the President's head and attributed Kennedy's violent backward motion to a muscle spasm triggered by massive brain damae. Spitz also said there is "no doubt at all that the entrance wound was in the back of the head." He dismissed as "nonsense" the assertion that Kennedy's backward motion indicates that the President was struck from the front.

SPITZ also said that he was satisfied from evidence that former Texas Gov. John B. Connally was struck by the same bullet which pierced the President's neck.

Warren Commission critics had argued that the same bullet could not have struck both Kennedy and Connally.

LBJ interview on JFK death on TV

By MURRAY ILLSON New York Times Service

NEW YORK - Former President Lyndon B. Johnson indicated in an interview in 1969 that "interna-tional connections" might have been involved in Lee Harvey Oswald's assassination of President John IF. Kennedy.

This was disclosed by Walter Cronkite in his televised news program over the CBS network Friday night when he broadcast portions of an interview with Johnson that had been deleted at the former president's request on the grounds of national security.

Cronkite said he was making the deleted portions public because of a column written Thursday by Marianne Means of the King Features Syndicate.

Miss Means said that Johnson told her in confidence a year before he died that Oswald had acted alone in the assassination but was "either under the influence or the orders" of Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba.

that she was breaking the former president's confidence "because Johnson's opinion appears to debunk the current speculation that the Central Intelligence Agency might somehow have been involved in the Kennedy assassina-In his broadcast Friday night, Cronkite said that the disclosure by Miss Means no longer made it necessary for him to withhold the deleted material from the interview with Johnson at the LBJ Ranch in September 1969.

Cronkite said that he had asked Johnson then whether he was satisfied that there had been no international conspiracy in the Kennedy assassination. He then showed deleted portions of the interview in which Johnson said:

"I can't honestly say that I've ever been completely relieved of the fact that there might have been international connec-

Haldeman's stand in rally case told

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) - Former White, House aide H.R. Halderman took the Fifth Amendment on all questions except ones on his name, age and employment when he gave a deposition last year in a $1.2 million damage suit.

The disclosure came Friday in U.S. District Court where Haldeman is one of several defendants being sued by 19 young persons who say they were illegally excluded from an Oct. 15, 1971, rally for evangelist Billy Graham.

HALDEMAN'S deposition was given Aug. 22, 1974, and read into the court record as plaintiffs prepared to wrap up their case in the weeklong trial.

The questions asked Haldeman were read by George Daly Jr., attorney for the plaintiffs, and Haldeman's answers were read from the stand by one of Daly's legal aides.

Haldeman gave his name and address in the deposition and, in response to a question about his job status, said he was unemployed. He then invoked the Fifth Amendment on questions which included what college he attended and whether he had held an elective office.

Haldeman's attorney Dean Hamrick objected to each question as it was read in court. But Judge James McMillan overruled the objections.

Daly also read into the record a memo allegedly initialed by Haldeman giving his consent to Secret Service plans for avoiding any disruption of the rally at Charlotte Coliseum.

Haldeman became a defendant — along with Secret Service agents, police officials, White House advance men and others - after existence of the memo was disclosed by former White House counsel John W. Dean III at the Senate Watergate hearings.

Slaying trial set in Norwalk

The case of Deborah Joy Kantaeng, accused ofmurdering a man she claimed had raped her, Friday was moved from Long Beach to Norwalk, where a Superior Court judge in "active retire-ment" will hear the case, scheduled to begin June 6.

Long Beach officials said Judge Beach Vasey, 70, had been designated to hear the trial. Judge Vasey, appointed to the Beach Superior Court bench in 1953, retired in 1972 but has periodically left retirement to hear cases.

The Kantaeng trial was moved to the Norwalk district, officials said, because attorneys have ing.

estimated it will last from four to six weeks. A trial of that length would disrupt the heavy flow of cases through Long Beach courtrooms, they said. Additionally, a complete refurbishing of the Long Beach courthouse is scheduled to begin this spring. Miss Kantaeng, 19, was arrested last Oct. 3, soon after 21-year-old Danny Charles Allen, of Santa Ana, was killed by a shotgun blast as he entered the duplex where the young woman lived with her family, police said.

After her arrest, Investigators said Miss Kantaeng told them Allen had raped her the day before the kill-

San Diego firemen begin work slowdown

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The 650 firemen in California's second biggest city began a work slowdown Friday in a try at breaking a deadlock in contract talks. They were threatened immediately with dismissal.

A warning they face firing was issued by the city manager's office when the slowdown was announced by Joe Francis, president of Fire Fighters Local 145,

FRANCIS said the firemen would refuse all work except emergency fire

The stalemate over a contract for the 1975-76 fiscal year was centered on salary and fringe requests.

Pay demands were referred by city councilmen Thursday to the city's Civil Service Commission, which was directed to hold public hearings.

Francis said salaries in San Diego were 14 per cent to 23 per cent below those in Los Angeles and Long Beach. A fireman first class in San Diego earns $1,186 monthly compared with $1,344 in Long Beach and $1,381 in Los Angeles County, Francis

In two meetings with city negotiators, he said no increases were offered in salaries or fringe benefits or improvements in working conditions.

"There was never any intention to bargain in good faith," he said.

THE slowdown vote was announced as 412 in favor, 4 against and 3 abstentions. If it proves ineffec-tive, Francis said a strike may be called. He expects some firemen to be fired, he said.,

During the slowdown, he said the fire-fighters will refuse to wear their regular uniforms or do such work as fire truck dispatching, repairing hoses and station facilities, issue licenses for bicycles or drive the mayor's limousine.

Shackling of suspect protested

SAN RAFAEL (UPI) -A crowd of about 75 persons chanting "Chains mean slavery" appeared Friday outside the courthouse where six men will be tried for murder and conspiracy in an alleged San Quentin Prison breakout attempt.

One of the six defendants, Willie Tate, appeared at the rally to protest the use of chains on his codefendants in Marin County Hall of Jus-tice. Tate's 10-year sentence for assault expired in September and he is iree on bond.

Tate and five prison in-mates are charged in connection with the alleged escape attempt in August 1971 in which three guards and three inmates were killed, including black revolutionary George Jackson.

"Merely because man is a prisoner and charged with the murder of guards that is no excuse for him to be chained like a wild, savage beast," Tate said at the noon rally.

The wrists, legs and waists of the other five defendants are chained and shackled to their chairs during court sessions.

Nine more potential jurors were excused Friday, the 16th day of jury selection. Prosecution and defense attorneys had used 22 peremptory chal-

Home canning seen causing new problems

By LOUISE COOK Associated Press

Millions of Americans planting vegetable gardens to save money are also preparing for home canning later in the year, prompting new concern about shortages of materials and safety of proce-

The two major manufacturers of canning jars and lids; the Kerr Glass Co. of Los Angeles and the Ball Corp. of Muncie, Ind., are working on 24-hour-a-day seven-day-a-week schedules to try to avert a repeat of last year when tight supplies of tinplate and soda ash, combined with an increased demand, caused a severe shortage.

Supplies remain tight, but Virginia Knauer, presidential assistant on consumer affairs, said there will be enough jars and lids if people don't get greedy. "Don't hoard and don't panic," she warned. "Buy only what you need. Leave some for the next gardener.

Mrs. Knauer said an estimated 400 million new canning jars - with lids - will be produced this year. The main buyers of this equipment are firsttime canners.

SEED and garden experts are predicting 6 million new home gardeners this year. Mrs. Knauer said a maximum of 3 million of them are expected to try their hand at canning. If each person put up 100 jars of produce, the 3 million first-time canners would use 300 million jars and lids, below the estimated production.

No one knows how many home canners already have jars or how replacement caps and lids will be needed. Mrs. Knauer estimated 1.6 billion replacement caps and lids will be produced this year and said the demand could range from just under 1 billion to 2.85

FTC digs in for thorny label issue

WASHINGTON (UPI) - In a move attacked by one of its members as about as useful "as a pair of socks on a rooster," The Federal Trade Commission Friday announced an investigation to find out if care and feeding labels are needed on all plants sold in Such labels may be a good idea, the commission staff said, because there are indications that perhaps 40 per cent of the $2 billion worth of plants sold by nurseries every year die before the first year is out.

There also is a question of whether owners should be advised that some plants are poisonous if eaten, it said.

But Mayo J. Thompson, one of the five FTC commissioners, filed a lengthy and vigorous dissent on the investigation, calling it a waste of the agency's time and energy. It's not the FTC's business, he said, to "close the gap left by the school system and the Agriculture Department."

"WE ARE GOING to tell the country's green-thumbers how often their-plants need watering, how much and what kind of fertilizer they need, the kind of soil they require, the amount of sunshine they thrive best on and - one trembles to say it - perhaps the kind and amount of personal 'talking to' they would find most pleasant and gratifying," he said. 'All we have to do, the staff says, is to sit down and draft a law saying that every plant vendor in the nation must attach one of these little mini-roadsigns to every plant he sells and we will have accomplished, at a stroke, what philosophers and utopians have sought for so long - the final greening of America," he added.

Such "bureaucratically ordered" tags, Thompson said, "will have about as much usefulness to the American public as a pair of socks on a rooster."

Butz discounts threats

Angry farmers may cut crops

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz said Friday he doubts farmers will make good on threats to produce less this summer in an attempt to force up the prices of their crops.

But Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, reporting he was being "summoned not invited, but summoned" home to Minnesota to meet with angry farmers, told Butz he may be misjudging their anger and determination.

"I have never in my life run into such antagonism. resistance and bitterness," Humphrey said at a hearing of Congress' Joint Economic Committee.

"I always thought I was a friend of the farmers, but they're angry at everybody."

Butz said it is too late for farmers to carry out pledges made at farm meetings all over the Midwest this spring to curtail production by 5 to 10 per cent. Farmers already have purchased seed and fertilizer and spring plowing is under way, he said.

The secretary agreed that farmers have cause for grievance. Despite an anticipated huge crop probably a record if the weather is good — farmers can look forward to a sharp drop in income, he

Farm income, what's left after production costs are paid, will fall from the record high of $32 billion in 1973, and from last year's estimated $27 billion to around $20 billion this year, he said

Humphrey said farmers may yet curb production. He said he recalls meetings in his youth when farmers also pledged to curb output, then, driving home, said they would plant all they could "and hope old Fred would keep his production down.

smarter now, they're good managers," he said.

When he gets home, Humphrey said, "the country bankers get me in a corner and say, 'Look asked. here, Hubert, if something isn't done, my bank is in trouble'." He said bankers worry that farmers won't be able to repay loans taken to buy seed, fertilizer and equipment.

Humphrey asked Butz what he would do if the weather is good, farmers don't cut back production, crops are big and export demands drop off. "What are you going to do if prices plummet?" he

Butz said he would use discretionary powers to raise loan rates, in effect setting a floor under farm

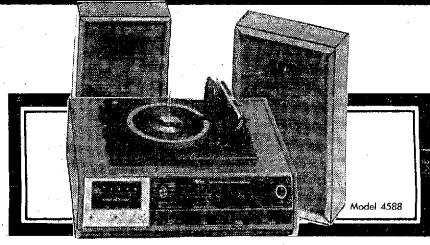

"I don't expect to sit here as secretary of agriculture and see American farmers liquidated." said.

CONCORD, N.H. (UPI) Gov. Meldrim Thomson's legal aide Friday asked the conservative state legislature to require national magazines such as Playboy and Penthouse to cover all but their names with brown paper wrappers.

The proposal was cou-pled with other legislation to prohibit public display of magazines with "indecent? pictures and articles. Opponents argued the legislation was so broad it could apply to art publications, pictures of sculpture and National Geographic.

"All this legislation is intended to do is prevent the display of sexually oriented material to minors," said James Barry Jr., 30. Members of the House Judiciary Committee challenged Barry, asking who would be responsible for supplying the brown paper wrapper, the publisher or the magazine store owner.

"The burden is on the publisher," said Barry. 'It's being done for some storeowners now.

R. Linford, Long Beach businessman

Long-time Long Beach businessman and church leader Raymond Linford died of an apparent heart attack Friday while playing basketball at his church. He was 60.

Mr. Linford, a resident of Long Beach since 1949, was the owner of Columbia Pest Control Co., 1205 Loma Ave., which he started in 1947. He and his wife, Wanda, made their home at 6462 DeLeon St.

He was a former president of Long Beach East Stake and Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Linford is survived by two sons, Ronald, of Seal Beach, and Michael, of Albany, Ga.; two daugh-ters, Mrs. Ann Goss, of Long Beach, and Mrs. Jeanette Crane, of San Francisco; five brothers, LaRue, Duane, Grant, Newel and Dale; and 12 grandchildren. Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Mon-day at Long Beach 3rd Ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 6509 E. Atherton St., followed by burial at Forest Lawn in Cypress.

New wars of religion

By MARK CLUTTER Religion Editor

This is the era of the new wars of religion. It is a bit like the Reformation except, thus far, the factions have not drawn swords to establish > on the field of battle. Most churches are feeling stress. The Roman Catholic Church, which formerly looked like a perfect monolith, at least to outsiders, is boiling with disobedience and heresies. The Methodists in their dignified way seem to be building up to an intramural armageddon. The most dramatic fights at the moment are in the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, and the Episcopal Church.

the nature of eternal truth

To the unchurched their battles read like pages from "Alice in Wonder-land."

To those involved, the battles are deadly serious. History, discipline, doctrine and emotional bias are involved.

IN THE Missouri Synod the issue is on the method of teaching the Bible. One party argues that the Bible must be taught exactly in accordance with the ultraconservative teachings of the Synod. They feel that the slightest deviation would open a Pandora's box of heresies and liberalism and moral

Their opponents believe in the critical-historical approach to the Rible. It is necessary, they argue, to know as much as possible about the times in which these books were written.

This fight has split Concordia Seminary and is threatening to split the denomination. (Concordia, ironically, means "peace" or "harmony.") The Missouri Synod's convention in Anaheim next July may be a real donnybrook.

The quarrel is amazing to any secular student of history. To understand George Washington it is important to know more than the facts of his life. One must know the colonial and revolutionary world in which he played so important a part. The critical-hisorical approach is the only scholarly way to the study of secular history. Is sacred history different?

THE ROLE of women is the basic quarrel in the Episcopal Church. But the quarrel has spread beyond that. It involves the discipline, law and authority of the church. It could split the church.

Should women be priests?

Many outsiders today would answer, "Why not?" After all, they can become physicians, lawyers, professors, even colonels. Many Protestant churches have female clergy.

The Episcopal Church is not totally opposed to the idea. It now has legally ordained deacons, the lowest order of clergy.

There is strong opposition to women priests, much of which comes from women. But a majority of the House of Bishops has voted in favor of women priests and bish-

Then why is the problem so serious?

It is necessary to understand the structure of the church. The Episcopal Church is Catholic Îts chief pastors are bishops of the apostolic succession going hack to the very beginning of Christianity.

priests almost passed at the last convention.

Unwilling to wait for the next convention, four bishops ordained 11 female deacons as priests last summer. The House of Bishops ruled the action "irregular and illegal." It was seen as an attack on the bishops and canon law.

Most of the women are still wearing their collars and celebrating the Eucharist when they get the chance.

for the participants. Their deepest emotions and most sacred ideals are involved. They are fighting for eternal truth.

Stiff-necked arrogance always appears to shout down those who appeal to reason. Arrogance, traditionally called the chief of sins, has also been called the sin of priests.

ELSEWHERE in these pages is a feature story about the thriving Singletarian Club of the Long Beach Unitarian Church. Other churches might learn something from the Unitarians.

There are more and more single people, espe-cially in big cities. But it is still no world for the single. Society is mostly geared to marriage and family life.

This is especially true of churches. Most churches are family-or-iented. They should be. But single people are also people. More room should be made for

Some of the single are frightfully lonely. Many a nice girl goes home from work to sit beside a telephone which seldom rings.

Most churches disapprove of divorce, but the majority accept it as a reality of modern life. But the divorced, who often need all the friendship they can find, may encounter coldness in church.

The widowed and the unmarried often feel they don't fit in.

All churches say their ministry is to all mankind. If they don't include the single, they are overlooking a large segment of the human race.

Here it is: I love the Catholic Church.

It doesn't give me all the answers — but it is my spiritual home and, please God, it will always be.

The 20th century saints it produces astonish me. Every time I read the lives of Mother Thresa of Calcutta and Father Maxmilan Kolbe (who died in Ausehwitz in 1941) my whole being is inspired and my conscience nags me for living such a lukewarm Christian life.

God's promises

Religion Editor:

A chronicle of nealy .6000 years of human history, has made it increasingly evident that man is unable to restrain himself from the curse of war. Man talks of peace—man may want peace, but unfortunately man's na-bent toward destruction. As long as man's motivations stem from the lust for power, selfish greed, and covetousness, man will never find the true path to peace. The ancient prophet Isaiah was inspired to write, "The Way of peace they know not;" (Isa. 59:8). Today, man stands on the brink of World War III, which would nevitably bring upon him nuclear annihilation and indescribable horror.

You asked the question. "What is the answer? Where do we go from Jesus Christ, the greatest Prophet that ever lived, provides the answer. He spoke of the age in which we live today and the dilemma we face. He described world conditions as they would be just prior to His intervention in world affairs. He affairs. promised to cut short these days and save mankind from total destruction, man would otherwise bring upon himself. (Read Matt. 24) He is to establish the Kingdom of God and "teach" man the realway to peace.

The prophet Isaiah wrote of this soon coming event. It is recorded in Isa. 2:3&4. "And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Eternal, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law,

Old church faces future Good Samaritans

By MARK CLUTTER

"The plain people" will have a celebration on Sunday. The First Church of the Brethren is observing its 25th anniversary in its colonial style church at 3332 Magnolia Ave.

Dr. Holland B. London. president of the California Graduate School of Theology, will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. worship service. Former ministers will participate in the worship.

The years have been eventful, said Dr. James

S. Flora, pastor. The most dramatic achievement was the building of the Long Beach Brethren Manor under the leadership of Pastor LeRoy Doty in the 1960s. This pioneering effort for retirement housing was considered adventurous then. Now churches all over the country are sponsoring retirement buildings. The Manor, directed by Joseph Jennings, houses 330 persons of modest income.

Other changes are more subtle. In the 25 years the church has become more of a community church. serving a large residential neighborhood. It is becoming integrated as various ethnic groups move in.

AN EXAMPLE of community service is the development of Little Park on the church ground. The park, named for Rodney Little, a young member who died in Vietnam, is for the neighborhood although reservations should be made Another community service is the bus ministry. Three buses bring 60 to 70 children to Sunday school and church.

The dignified, traditionchurch building was honored for city beautification in 1973. The sanctuary is plain — no stained glass or ornamentation. This is in keeping with Brethren tradition.

DR, FLORA briefly sketched the history of the 'plain people."

The original congregation was formed in 1708 in Germany. It was influenced by the beliefs of the Anabaptists (ancestors of the Mennonites) and the German Pietists.

Persecuted in Europe, they moved to Pennsylvania, where many still re-Through much of their history the Brethren were rural people. They dressed in black. They were, and are, a peace church like the Quakers, but they respect men whose conscience requires them to serve in the military.

Now they dress like other people, but plain living remains an ideal.

The old timers tended to disapprove of education beyond Bible study.

That is no longer true. For example, Dr. Flora graduated from Bridgevater College, attended Union Theological Seminary and the Boston University School of Theology and has a master of divinity from Bethany Theological Seminary. He received his doctorate of philosophy from California Graduate School of Theology in 1973.

In Long Beach there is the First Church of the Brethren and First Brethren Church, 3601 Linden Ave. Many people find this confusing.

The explanation is that they are separate denominations. In 1882-3 there was a three-way split. The 'progressives' didn't think the Brethren were progressive enough. "The old order" thought the Brethren were too progressive.

"The progressives are now very conservative and fundamentalist," Dr. Flora said. "We are more middle of the road. The Old Order is found mostly in the East."

THE FIRST Church of the Brethren is fairly old as history goes in Long Beach. It was organized in 1907, meeting at first in the Alamitos Library Hall. The little group purchased a house for a church and in 1916 built a church at Third Street and Walnut Avenue "way out in the country."

Some of the customs of the church are a bit different. Baptism is by immersion three times face down in honor of the Trinity. That is why Brethren are sometimes called "Dunkers." There is a ritual in which members wash each others' feet in the Biblical manner.

Friendship, fun for unwed

By MARK CLUTTER

"I was recently divorced," said a wistful feminine voice on the telephone. "I don't know what to do with myself. I used to be very active in my church. I had lots of friends. Now I seem to be left out of everything. Churches are geared to family life. I come home at night after work and read novels until I think I'm losing my mind. Isn't there any way I can meet people and be part of the human race?"

Why don't you visit the Unitarian Universalist Church at 5450 Atherton St. next Sunday?" this writer said. "They have a very active club of single people.

There may be other churches that are dynamically involved with singles, but surely none is doing more than the Unitarians.

'Sometimes membership of the Singletarians is almost as large as the membership of the church," said the Rev. Rexford J. Styzens, pas-

President Carolyn Berk, merry, 29-year-old schoolmarm, discussed the club and its functions.

"We are all kinds of people. We are all ages above 21. We are divorced, widowed, bachelors and spinsters. You don't have to be a Unitarian to belong.

The officers, however, must be Unitarians. And six of the nine members of the church board are Singletarians.

There is a good reason why members must be 21. Cocktail and wine parties are frequent on the club's crowded social calendar.

"We are basically a club for fun and friend-Miss Berk said. "We know, of course, that many who have recently become single have terrible emotional problems. The church has a counseling service to help them. And we do help each other. When a member has a problem there are plenty of volunteers"

POSITIVE THINKING

by Norman Vincent Peale

Remarkable Man

The death recently of President Chiang Kai-shek of the Republic of China brought back interesting recollections of this illusleader. Generalissimo and Madame Chiang, old friends of mine, taught me much about the skill of living effectively. Chiang was a man of great spiritual insight. Indeed I was so impressed by his depth, having been with him on many occasions, that I asked how he had developed the inner peace and the calm control which he demonstrated. His reply humbly expressed was: "I was not always this way. I did not always have inner peace I was a tense man. But knew I had to conquer this to be a true leader and with God's help I learned how to do so. That was one of the supreme experiences of all my life."

"How did you do it," I wanted to know.

"I decided upon the practice of spending thirty minutes every morning in meditation and prayer. But that did not prove to be enough, so I added thirty minutes at noontime. Even that did not seem to be sufficient to give me the spiritual values I desired, so I added thirty minutes more in the evening.'

He told me that he spends this hour and a half in meditation and prayer each day without fail or interruption. He gave strict orders that regardless how great a crisis might develop, he was not to be disturbed when at his devotions.

As a guest in the Presidential summer residence high among the mountains of Taiwan I had the unusual privilege of watching this famous member of the Big Four at those prayers he had told me about at dinner. Early the next morning at about 5 o'clock I awakened and was watching sunrise over the mountains. Just opposite my room was a balcony circling this classical Chinese style building. Suddenly along the balco-ny came the Generalissimo clad in a long black cape and wearing a sort of slouch hat. He was walking slowly followed by an enormous dog. His hands were raised fingers touching in an attitude of prayer and his lips were Pascinated I watched as man and dog disappeared around the corner only to reappear again in the same intense prayerful attitude. This went on for more than the thirty minutes the President had mentioned which indicated that he had no time clock on his prayers. Unknown to Chiang Kai-shek I too began to meditate prayerfully in a memorable experience.

Refugees held on Guam until U.S. sites ready

WASHINGTON — The flight of Vietnamese refugees from Saigon to the United States is being halted at Guam until arrangements can be made for their care in California and elsewhere, congressional and State Department sources said Friday.

The refugees were arriving at Guam at the rate of 400 per hour Friday but only one flight on to Travis Air Force Base, carrying 340 orphans and other refugees. was scheduled to arrive late Friday, a spokesman at the base said. At the same time U.S. military forces were hastily preparing quarters for 50,000 more refugees on Guam which already was crowded with 12,215 Vietnamese at noon Friday. At least three military bases in California are being considered for relo-

SACRAMENTO (UPI) -The Brown administration Friday dispatched a California National Guard general to Guam to gather information on the number and condition of Vietnamese refugees coming to California. Mario Obledo, state secretary of bealth and welfare, said Brig. Gen. Robert S. Ford was orderd to "clear up" such questions as the economic status, the health and the number of refuheaded for California.

cation centers, according to Rep. Burt Talcott, R-Calif. Talcott said Camp San Luis Obispo is expected to care for 2,000 refugees, Camp Roberts 8,000 and an unknown number may be sent to Camp lrwin near Barstow.

The delay in moving large numbers of refugees to California came as California congressmen and others protested the lack of information available about the evacuation.

California Assembly Speaker Leo McCarthy, following meetings with President Ford, Secretary of State Henry Kissinger and top State Department officials, Friday called the lack of information "in-

McCarthy closely questioned the State Depart-ment officials in an effort to learn the administration's plans for handling evacuees after they reach the United States.

"None of them had any information," he said. "The state of California has to have hard information on how many people will arrive and how much the federal government is going to help."

He added, "I struck out, flexibility for action.

He said the state was "not unsympathetic" to the plight of refugees but it desperately needed the information so that they can "be assimilated with some compassion and intelligence.

Members of Congress also complained with Reps. Norman Mineta and Fortney Stark, both D-Calif., firing off an angry telegram, asking Kissinger and U.S. Atty. Gen. Edward Levi questions about plans for the care and feeding of the refugees.

"Quite frankly Mr. Secretary and Mr. Attorney General, we doubt that a plan has been developed to adequately accommodate those who have already arrived, not to mention the many more who are likely to come to the U.S.," said Stark and Mineta.

Talcott along with Mineta and Stark noted a stream of adverse calls to their congressional district offices concerning the evacuation but Talcott urged the people of his district to aid the Vietnamese as they arrive.

"They ought not to be fearful. The Vietnamese have always been the most delightful of people," Talcott said. "We have to care a little about them.'

Talcott disclosed the plans to use the camp in San Luis Obispo County for the refugees as well as Camp Roberts and Camp Irwin. He said he was told of the plans by military and State Department sources.

The State Department later confirmed that sprawling Camp Roberts, near Paso Robles, used for National Guard training, was under consideration.

At the same time a spokeswoman for groups handling the orphan flights said that the orphans again will be proc-essed through the San Francisco Presidio and the Long Beach Naval Station. She added that more orphans from the scheduled Travis flights may arrive early today at the two sites. Special precautions will be taken in an effort to avoid the confusion surrounding previous orphan flights, the spokes-

April 4 'sloppy tally' ballot counts revised

By BOB HOUSER Political Editor

Oversight and counting errors produced one of the sloppiest election night tallies in the history of Long Beach Unified School District elections last

Although the official canvass by the Los An-geles County Registrar's office did not affect the three winners or their order of finish, it did change the order for two. It put Harry W. Ormeahead of Norman H. Gottlieb for 10th and 11th posiions in the 17-candidate Winners of the three Board of Education seats ballot, the number of were incumbents James M. Crawford and Jerald S. Jacobs and, for the seat vacated by James Gray, Hugh David Burcham.

Election night tallies of the hand-counted paper ballots were erroneous for all 17 candidates, ranging for one. The percentage of error was as high as 5.4 per cent in one instance.

The miscount and the percentage of error cited are both the highest in the last 20 years. Another twist: In this election, 14 of the 17 candidates suffered vote losses in the offi-cial canvass. But in every official canvass since 1955 most candidates gained.

The only immediately apparent error on election night was the report from precinct counters of the total vote cast - 23,669. If each of those voters had marked all three choices he was entitled to on the marks would have been 71,007.

But the election night count of each candidate's votes showed 74,891 choices recorded or a discrepancy of 3,884 marks representing about 1,300

That error was explained by the registrar's office as simple neglect or oversight; precinct officials had failed in some instances to list the total vote east in the space pro-vided on their polling place report sheets.

The canvass thus produced 2,106 additional voters, bringing the total vote cast to 25,775 for a voter turnout figure of 16.53 per cent. That discrepancy was an error of 8.9 per cent. The highest error in 20 years of reporting heretofore had been three-fourths of one per Largest loser of votes was fourth-place finisher Bonnie Seymour who drop-ped 127 votes in the canvass, an error of 2.8 per cent. Largest loser percentagewise was lastplace finisher Larry Goldstein. The 21 votes he lost in the official canvass from his 389 reported on election night was a 5.4 per cent error.

Except for the suspiciously pure report in the 1963 election in which election night returns tallied exactly with the official canvass, there have been have been counting errors in every election. But most of them have been less than one per cent.

Here are election night returns and official canvass results respectively:

Cherry Manor ecology study urged

By DON BRACKENBURY Staff Writer

A petition calling for an environmental impact study of the Cherry Manor subdivision and the adjacent industrial area will be filed Tuesday with the Long Beach

City Council.

The petition is one of two being submitted by attorney Kenneth Zommick, who said they represent "a substantial number of very contact of the state cerned citizens of Long Beach.

Zommick said the second peti-

The environmental study is sought, Zommick said in a letter accompanying the petition, to "enable the council to deal with the accumulated effects of all prior planning decisions that have generated this adverse environmental the problem of potential holocaust from devastating explosions (which can be produced from the industrial chemical complex in five or six possible ways), the everpresent threat from white phosphorus use, a derailment on the nearby railroad lines, and the almost daily inundation of the area by styrene, sulfur and spray paint fumes and gases, are only a few reasons for this request for an environmental study," the attorney wrote.

"This area is also plagued by substantial variations of noise that physiologically and psychologically affects the residents," he said.

Zommick said a history of such problems in Long Beach and elsewhere in the nation should be "sufficient warning" that immediate action is needed to give a decent environment and to "further protect the financial interests of the city from potential judgments following lawsuits filed by citizens if a tragedy occurs."

Public support of downtown mall asked

By MARY ELLIS CARLTON Urban Affairs Editor

The people of Long Beach must show faith in development of a proposed downtown shopping mall or the flight to the suburbs by merchants and customers will continue.

This was the challenge laid before a recent downtown redevelopment Project Area Committee meeting attended by 200 businessmen and residents. It was hurled by Jack Spencer, redevelopment coordinator for Ernest W. Hahn Inc., which has an exclusive contract with the City of Long Beach to redevelop a six-block area of the downtown.

Some in the audience appeared to doubt that plans for a revitalized downtown had progressed past the talking stage and to somewhere near the action stage.

"What if you build this huge mall in the center of downtown Long Beach and it doesn't go? Who gets hurt?" asked one.

"We already have two roofed shopping malls within driving distance (Cerritos and Westminster)- both with free parking. What's going to make people want to come to downtown Long Beach to shop?" asked another.

"If we, as developers, didn't have faith that this would go, we wouldn't be here," Spencer said. "And, if there were no market here, we would not have the commitments of three or four department stores to come into the cen-

He said the trend for developers to turn their attentions to declining downtowns was a comparatively new one, sparked by environmental and land-use concerns and the threat of the energy

"And we think it is a good trend," he said, noting that the Hahn company, one of the largest developers of shopping centers in the country, was currently involved in eight downtown redevelopment projects.

"Not too many downtown regional shopping centers are cur-rently operating," he noted, citing malls in San Bernardino, Culver City (currently under construction by Hahn) and Broadway Plaza in downtown Los Angeles as examples of some that are. In recent years, some cities, realizing that their downtown cores were deteriorating, did some quick cosmetic surgery for their retail districts, closed off streets, put in some landscaping and created pedestrian malls, he said

"But because of the width of the streets and for other reasons, they have not succeeded. If you would like to see one that hasn't, I invite you visit to Fresno, hailed 15 years ago as the success story of that trend. It is anything but a success story today.'

As for who would get hurt if the project should fail, Spencer said the Hahn company would be the losers-"at no expense to you (the taxpayers)."

But the only way it could possibly fail is if there is a total collapse of the economy," he said.

It was noted, also, that aimost half of the more than one million square feet of space in the $200 million shopping complex would be occupied by three anchor department stores.

"They already have spent a great deal of money," he assured the crowd, "and department stores don't go into an area unless they are sure of the market. They are more cautious than developers."

The enclosed shopping mall currently is proposed for the sixblock area between Ocean Boulevard and Broadway, Pacific and Long Beach boulevards.

It would include 344,000 feet of leasing space for 110 to 140 individual shops, an office tower, parking structures for 3,650 automobiles, a multitheater complex, many food operations, including fast-food service and quality sitdown restaurants, a tennis club on top of one of the parking structures and numerous other amenities.

At least two in the crowd asked why, in an area so near the ocean and with year-round good climate, an enclosed mall was planned.

"And what about the energy crisis?" asked another.

"On 16 acres of ground, we are putting a complex which under normal circumstances would require

52 acres," Spencer said. "The de-partment stores are going three levels instead of two. The mall area will be two levels; the parking structure, five levels.

"We have made extensive studies of five shopping centers in conjunction with Southern Califor-nia Edison Co., and they have furnished us with figures which show the total energy consumed is greater in open malls than in enclosed

He noted also that department stores, the lifeblood of shopping centers, will no longer locate in open mall configurations, adding:

"Developers tend to build what the buying public wants. . .and all studies show that customers are flocking to enclosed malls." PAC chairman Darrell Neighbors, recently returned from a vacation in Hawaii, interceded that he visited the new Kahala Shopping Center while there. "It was less than 1,000 yards from the ocean and, as you know, they have beautiful weather year-round," he said. "The mall was enclosed."

As to questions about possible increases in property taxes as a result of the proposed project, Randy Verrue, executive assistant to the city manager, said:

'The first requirement by the city is that any new development coming into the downtown would have to be a self-sustaining venture. We have made some changes to reduce our cost and have asked the Hahn agency to make more improvements in the area.

"We have been able to reduce our obligation to a level that increased taxes realized from the completed project would pay any bond indebtedness incurred in its development."

The project, made possible through the California Redevelopment Law and tax-increment bonds, would not increase general property taxes in the city, he said

The proposed Hahn shopping center, not yet approved, is due to come up for public hearings before the the City Council and Long Beach Redevelopment Agency early in June, Verrue said.

All in all, this is about as persuasive a performance of the Mahler Seventh as I can imagine. It is one admirers of Mahler will wish to be certain to hear. And obviously the music communicates even to people who are not Mahler buffs, for its performance Thursday was received with a standing ovation.

For all that, the symphony is not the overpowering experience that some other Mahler symphonics arc. Its melodies are forgettable, its brilliance of orchestration is handed down from earlier Mahler symphonies, its musical ideas are mostly hand-me-downs, too.

The symphony is one Mahler seemed reluctant to finish; it was his notion

Friday's Closing Prices

Discounts figured to lure air travelers back

By JAY PERKINS

WASHINGTON (AP) - The nation's domestic airlines have turned to discount fares and inflight gimmicks in hopes of pulling out of an economic tailspin now in its fourth month.

The trend is a sharp turnaround from last year when airline fares rose 15 per cent and the industry reported its biggest profit since 1967.

Air fares have shown no sign this year of coming down, but the discounts now available allow travelers to save between 20 and 40 per cent from the price of a regular coach ticket.

The airlines began offering discounts early this year after the economic downturn, rising unemployment and higher air fares combined to cut sharply into the number of passengers they carried each day.

The Air Transport Association says airline traffic was down 2.8 per cent in January, 1975, compared to January, 1974. The decline jumped to 6.1 per cent in February and slowed to 3.8 per cent in March.

DISCOUNTS were chosen as a passenger inducement rather than across-the-board reductions in air fares because discounts are less disruptive to airline

Discounts can be tailored to attract passengers who would not have made the trip otherwise. If they are tailored carefully, most passengers who would have fown anyway will not be able to take advantage of the lower fares.

For example, a businessman has little use for an excursion fare that requires him to stay in one city for seven days minimum. Yet such a discount plan could easily attract vacationer's who were originally planning to stay at home or drive instead of fly.

The discounts available today vary from market to market and from airline to airline. The savings depend on factors such as when and where the traveler is going, how long he plans to stay and whether he can make his reservation well in ad-

SEVERAL AIRLINES also have asked the Civil Aeronautics Board — CAB — to let them offer discounts to youths, senior citizens and families

The CAB ruled several years ago that youth fares and family fares were illegal because they discriminated against other passengers. However, the board reversed itself recentl on youth fares for international fights to Europe after U.S. airlines complained they were losing youth traffic to Canada, where the fares remained in effect for European

Although the discounts can save passengers money, they also can be confusing. The same fares are called by different names by different airlines. In addition, there are so many discount fares available that the passenger may have trouble determining which is best for him.

Trans World Airlines, for example, has 20 different fares in effect on its flights between New York and Los Angeles. Prices for coach seats in that market range from a high of $364 round trip - the regular, no discount fare — to a low of $216.

TO QUALIFY for the lowest possible fare, known as the Demand Schedule fare, the passenger must make reservations and pay for his ticket at least 60 days in advance. There are other restrictions, such as a penalty if the passenger cancels out at the last minute.

If the passenger cannot make reservations two months in advance, he can fly between New York and Los Angeles on what TWA calls its Daylight Saving fare and what United Airlines calls the Bicentennial

That discount, which ranges from 20 to 25 per cent depending on the season, reduces the cost of the round trip to $291 in peak season and $273 in off-peak season. The traveler must stay between 7 and 30

The passenger can obtain an even bigger discount by traveling on a night excursion instead of a day excursion ticket. The night excursion fare between New York and Los Angeles round trip is $255.

The discounts are not limited to cast to coast flights. The Bicentennial or Daylight Saving fare, for example, is available on flights of over 750 miles more than half the routes operated by trunk airlines.

IN ADDITION, there's the no-frills discount fare with no restriction on distance traveled or time the passenger remains at his destination. To qualify, just pay for the ticket seven days in advance and travel only on Monday through Thursday.

The no frills fare currently is being offered by five airlines — American, Continental, Delta, Eastern and National - on routes that connect the East Coast and Florida and which connect Florida with selected major cities in the South and West.

Although it started out as a "bring your own lunch" fare, several airlines have added frills such as free soft drinks and inexpensively priced sandwiches and alcholic beverages.

The no frills fare is 35 per cent below normal coach fares - a level low enough to make it cheaper to fly in certain markets than to take the train or bus. The promotions don't stop with lower fares, however.

American Airlines has mounted a small camera inside the cockpit on some of its jets so passengers can watch takeoffs and landings on closed circuit TV

CONTINENTAL Airlines is installing electronic table tennis and tennis game machines in the back of its jumbo jets and is establishing "Polynesian Pubs" — stand up bars and sit-down lounges.

In addition, Continental soon will offer old Flash Gordon and Buck Rogers serials, Bugs Bunny and Road Runner cartoons and interviews with sports celebrities on some flights - all free.

United is installing closed circuit television systems in some of its jets and will show various selections on the monitors. United also is experimenting with the concept of picking up live TV signals while airborne, allowing passengers to tune in an afternoon football game or a morning game show.

In the late 1960s, startups accounted for 30% to 40% of venture capital investments. That figure dropped to 15% to 20% two years ago. Now, it is nearing zero, Industry Week said.

Business Wire

Mounting concern of knowledgeable professionals over scientifically "illiterate political decisions" concerning the environment was brought to focus Friday in Los Angeles by a scientist ad-dressing closing sessions of the California Water Pollution Control Associa-

Dr. Joseph Ling, St. Paul, Minn., environment engineer, urging formation of an independent national environment assessment commission, told the water professionals that federal acts providing for stringent clean air and water regulation at massive taxpayer cost, were enacted without any real knowledge of the ecological consequences.

Digital watches predicted for third of market by '80

By LeROY POPE

NEW YORK (UPI) -Digital watches that first appeared on the market in 1972 at $1,300 or so soon may be selling for $30 to $50, industry forecasters

Under pressure of the entry into the business of many big electronics manufacturers, digital watches already have experienced a sharp price shakedown like the one that hit the pocket electronic calculator business.

The impact of the shakeout was revealed in two seminars on the industry held in Wall Street recently, one by Burgess & Leith and the other by Coleman & Co. Spokesmen for the watchmakers, the jewelers, such mass merchandisers as Sears, Roebuck, and Wall Street financial analysts spoke their minds.

state digital watch is going to be an ever increasing factor in the way. watch industry.

Coleman & Co. predicted sales of digital watches will rise from 500,000 in 1974 to two million this year. Some industry enthusiasts were much bolder, saying the digitals would garner 33 per cent of total watch market in the United States by 1980 a market that then should be in excess of 50 million units.

The jewelers and many of the mass merchandisers disagreed. They were willing to concede that all battery powered electronic watches would take over a big share of the market but they said the big sales will be in battery powered quartz crystal watches using the traditional sweep hands.

"The balance wheel and sweep hands are so reliable and take such a shellacking, which the digitals explained one jeweler. Other jewelers said the digitals always would be big and ugly.

But the digitals already have made much head-With electronics companies such as General Electric, Zenith and Texas Instruments eager to find a new market with them there is plenty of money for both product development and sales promotion and enough competition to keep prices coming down from the present levels of $80-$150. A General Electric spokesman flatly predicted good $30 digitals by 1980.

BUT THE makers of digitals must overcome more than price barriers. There are two kinds of solid state digital watch, liquid crystal and light emitting diode. The diode type is the kind you press a switch to read. Early models of both had bad bugs, so have some of the electronic sweephand watches. A watch buyer for Bloomingdale's Department Store in New York said in a recent interview Bloomingdale's all electronic watches it sold.

In early liquid crystal digitals, selling for way over $100, the crystals failed within two months.

Another problem for the digital watchmakers is winning the kind of brand acceptance makers of famous sweephand watches have enjoyed for decades. Since many digitals are turned out by electronics firms new to the watch business, they have no brand recognition and no ready way of getting it.

NOVUS, the digital watch division of National Semiconductor Co. in Sunnyvale, Cal., is trying to win brand recognition by hard-hitting ads.

"Sell one of our watches and you won't see it again until battery changing time," the company advertises to jewelers.

Bulova Watch Co. and Hughes Aircraft Co. have teamed up to produce a digital watch and also stress longevity and reliin the past two years had to take back 60 per cent of peal.

Messersmith 'batters' Giants, 6-5

By GORDON VERRELL, Staff Writer

SAN FRANCISCO-Andy Messersmith did as much with his bat Friday night as he did with his arm in leading the Dodgers to a bitterly-fought 6-5 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The Dodger righthander stroked three doubles-a modern National League record for pitchersscored twice and drove in a run as the Dodgers squared the season series with their arch-enemies at "If I could pitch like I hit tonight I'd be all right," Andy said after gaining his third win of the season and seventh in a row over-all.

But it was a precarious victory, with Jim Brewer and Candlestick Park's artificial turf each getting a Brewer took over for Messersmith in the ninth and, with two out and runners at first and second, San Francisco shortstop Chris Speier collected his third hit of the night, a long drive that caromed off the phony turf and bounded over the fence for a ground-rule double. It scored one run, but Gary Matthews, who would have scored the tying run if the ball stayed in play, had to stop at third.

Brewer barely got pinch-hitter Garry Maddox at first to end the game but start a heated argument between San Francisco manager Wes Westrum, who disagreed with the penultimate call, and first base umpire Ed

The ball took its usual zany hops all evening in the wild winds of Candlestick. The Giants kicked what few balls they could reach by committing four errors. Of the Dodgers' six runs, only three were earned.

DODGER OF DAY

ANDY MESSERSMITH had three doubles and won third game, beating Giants, 6-5.

A triple by Dave Lopes that was misplayed by rightfielder Bobby Murcer on the first play of the game set the tone for the evening.

The Dodgers got that run, but San Francisco came back with two in the bottom of the first.

The lead see-sawed until the Dodgers went on top in the sixth with two runs as Messersmith popped his second two-base hit to drive in one run, and then scored the second.

An unearned run in the top of the eighth proved decisive, Messersmith decisive, Messersmith again setting it up with his leadoff double. It was the first time since 1895 a National League pitcher collected three doubles in a single game, and the first time in more than 50 years anyone has done it.

He scored when pitcher Charlie Williams fielded Dave Lopes' sacrifice bunt try and threw wildly to third.

Andy, after struggling the first four innings, pitched well through the eighth and then turned it over to Brewer, who surrendered his first run of the year but, with the help of the bouyant AstroTurf, kept the Giants from tying the score.

"No, I don't like the designated hitter," said Messersmith, who may might appear in leftfield one of these days. Walter Alston started Paul Ray Powell there Friday night, the sixth player to man the position this season. Rookie Henry Cruz re-placed Powell and prevented two runs from scoring by taking away a hit from Von Joshua after a long running catch. "Guys swing at you everyday," reasoned Messersmith, "so I like to swing at them once in a

Oakland silenced by Hassler, 2-0

By DON MERRY Staff Writer

In his previous two outings, Andy Hassler was something akin to atro-

He surrendered 12 hits and 11 runs (nine earned) in a mere 6.2 innings.

So what did he accomplish Friday night against the division-leading Oak-land A'? Considerably

Hassier authored a fivehit shutout and, benefitting from a superlative defensive exhibition from his infield, which executed four double plays, was able to overcome the A's,

"If he keeps his cool and doesn't get upset by errors, he'll be okay," manager Dick Williams said of Hassler, the softspoken lefthander who has earned three suits of clothes from Williams for his propensity of getting the opposition to hit the ball on the ground. "The only thing we have to watch is that he doesn't lose his composure," Williams added.

As much as Hassler appreciated the triumph, Williams savored it even more just because it was Oakland. At first, Williams, who spent three summers of turmoil working for Charles O. Finley, was reluctant to admit a special elation over defeating his former team, but when the question was put to him a second time he broke down with a smile and an outpouring of honesty.

"Yes," he admitted, "I sorta get an extra kick beating that team. I'd like to beat them every time we play them, but I can't say any more. We've got 17 more games with those (bleeps).

The Angels turned three double plays in the first three innings to keep things on a smooth footing for Hassler, and then did an encore in the seventh. The Angels have fashloned 22 twin killings in 15 games, and Hassler was quick to take note.

"It's a comfortable feeling to know that when the ball is hit on the ground the guys behind you are going to make the plays," he said. "As a matter of fact I'd rather give up a ground ball out than get a strikeout. One thing about our defense — it's a helluva lot better than it was

Hassler also said he took advantage of an excellent scouting report on the A's turned in by Del

"They have a couple of guys going bad and we were able to take advantage." Hassler said. "Resides, I'd never faced Billy Williams before."

In their first confrontation, Hassler disposed of Williams three times in succession, twice on strikeouts. He also fanned Reggie Jackson on three occasions.

Pitching, speed and defense-supposedly the Angel trademarks for '75 -were all in evidence Friday for a Little League night turnout of 20,013.

Orlando Ramirez, who provided some slick fielding at short, and Morris Nettles stole bases while Bruce Bochte was able to take advantage of Jackson's fielding error in rightfield in the fourth inning that led to the first aged only four hits off the process.

ANGEL ANGLES: Nolan Ryan admitted Friday he has been bothered by a sore elbow since opening night and has also experienced some pain in his forearm. Ryan was examined Friday by Dr. Jules Rasinki and will miss one and possibly two starts although, according to manager Dick Williams, "He doesn't want to miss any." ... I went to bed Thursday night feeling depressed but when I woke up first-round leader Jim Col-Third-round action today begins at 8 a.m., while Sunday's final round starts at 10 a.m.

Trevino, like Colbert on Thursday, missed the tournament record by one stroke, shooting a 65. He had the record in hand until he bogied the par-5 17th hole. The last four holes here are dead into the wind and treacherous.

Par-5s generally take a beating, but only one man in the field of 30, Hale Irwin, birdied it. The 423yard 18th also is exceedingly difficult, and Colbert can attest to that. He double-bogied it to lose second place, shooting a Fifteen players broke par on opening day but only seven did on Friday. The wind was a major factor, but the greenskeeper turned nasty, too, and set some ugly pin placements.

GEIBERGER, 37, didu't seem to mind them, how-

He missed only one green, the 16th, and his long, low shots found the mark so often times that he was able to birdie five times — from 8, 4, 7, 12 and 14 feet. On the 16th he saved par from six feet.

Geiberger was fortified by a peanut butter sandwich, his favorite meal, following the 11th hole. He rang in successive birdies on the 12th, 13th and 14th

"The sandwiches must have worked," he said with a laugh. "I hit my drive into the trap on No. 12, then I had a sandwich. I hit a 6 iron out, a wedge onto the green and holed the putt."

Geiberger expressed surprise that he is playing so well. There are a number of holes here which demand a hook, or a draw. But he can't hit that shot.

"I'VE worked on it, but I just can't do it," said the slender Santa Barbaran. "I finally decided I couldn't cure the disease, so I went with my fade. So far it's working fine." Fine, indeed. His 134 total matches the tournament record set by Frank Beard five years ago.

Trevino may be the man to watch, however. Although he has never won in California, the twotime U.S. and British Open champion is wielding a hot putter.

On Thursday he had an upset stomach, but he oneputted nine times to salvage a 72. He was just as sharp Friday, one-putting eight times and holing a wedge on the third hole.

Trevino sank a 15-footer for a bird on No. 2, then hit his wedge from the high grass on No. 3, spanning 20 feet. He added birdies of five feet on the sixth and two feet on the ninth to turn in 32.

"SUPER MEX" strung together birdies of 8, 2 and 12 feet on the 11th through 13th, and when he knocked in a two-footer on the 16th, his card showed half birdies, half pars.

But the great touch momentarily deserted him on the 17th. He 3-putted from 30 feet, missing his par from four feet.

"When I get a guaranteed price ($2,000) and there is no cut, it's time to vacation," he joked. "I'm not going to practice at all this week."

"I can't afford to get excited about the match, not now anyway," Connors said after working out for more than an hour. "Maybe before the match starts I'll get a little excited. At least then I'll have some control over the situation."

Connors is shooting for the biggest sports payday in history outside of boxing. The winner will receive more than $500,000, with the loser picking up $300,000 and Connor's promoter, manager Bill Riordan, also receiving $300,000. The match may be viewed by as

"The right punch at the right time and I'm a national hero," said Terry Daniels of Grand Prairie,

But to ringside veterans it's a dream, the nonsporting event of the year. The consensus is the five couldn't beat Foreman with a stick.

The group has become known as "the stiffs." The five appeared with Foreman at a weigh-in Friday. Foreman, who will receive a reported $20,-000, was grossly overweight at 232 pounds and his opponents, each earning $10,000 plus expenses, tipped the scales at 1 028.

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) - A top Indianapolis 500-mile auto race mechanic has accused three-time Indy 500 winner A.J. Foyt of cheating by using extra fuel in a Gordon Johncock, said Friday that some racing teams are considering pulling out of the Indy 500 because of Foyt denied that he had cheated in any race.

"If he can run with 45 gallons, then my cars should be able to run with 45 gallons," Bignotti said. U.S. Auto Club championship cars are limited to 40 gallons.

Foyt said Bignotti's cars were using more fuel than his because Bignotti ran them at higher revolutions per minute.

"I turn 9,000 rpms and he turns 2,200 more," Foyt said. "That's why he uses a hell of a lot more fuel." Bignotti also accused Foyt of using an illegal fuel

Neff in the fourth inning gave the Trojans a 5-2 win over Gahr in Suburban League play Friday, pre-venting Gahr from clinching a tie for the league

Trailing 2-0 going into the fourth, Neff began the game-deciding rally with a Mike Wagen single. Two Gahr errors followed, and Bob Molina slapped a runscoring single. The remaining two runs came across on walks.

Wagen was the leading hitter in the game, finishing with a single and a double and one RBI. The defeat leaves Gahr with a 9-2 mark, three games ahead of the pack with four games remaining to Staying mathematically alive in the Suburban race were 6-5 Mayfair and Cerritos. The Monsoons moved into a second-place tie with Cerritos via an 11inning 4-3 win.

Vern Burgess pitched another low-hit game for the victors-yielding only two-but walking six. Mayfair won the game when Chuck Pinner was hit by a pitch, stole second and was eliminated on a fielder's choice. That allowed Gary Efstan to reach second and score on Rick Waller's single.
Glenn, which joined Mayfair and Cerritos in second place, outlasted its own errors and beat Artesia 9-8 in nine innings. Shortstop Jerry Alvarado was an offensive star for Glenn, stroking three of his team's 17 hits.

in the top of the ninth, when Jerry Walton led off with a single. He was sacrificed to second by John Magdziak, and Tony Guerro followed with a single. When the rightfielder bobbled the ball, Walton raced home to score.

In the Sunset League, Los Alamitos opened a two-game lead by defeated Newport Harbor 7-5. The Griffins, now 9-1 in league, had to overcome an early 5-0 deficit. Relief pitcher Craig Chamberlain knocked in the winning run in the sixth with a single.

A three-team logjam for second place in the Sunset League developed, with Fountain Valley, a 10-2 victor over Western, and Edison, a 4-3 victor over Loara, joining Loara with 7-3 marks.

An error by the first baseman allowed Scott Desrosiers to score in the bottom of the seventh to account for the Edison tri-Fountain Valley pitchers Doug Zeissner and Ray Craft combined to one-hit Western.

Lynwood stayed three games ahead in the San Gabriel Valley League race with a 5-4 win over Downey. Lynwood, now 9-1 with four games remaining, was led by the pitching of Randy Mullins and the hitting of Mike Mendo-

Mullins struck out 11 and Mendoza had two hits and three RBI, including the game-winning RBI single in the bottom of the sixth.

La Mirada joined Downey in second place with a 3-1 win over Bellilower.

Greg Moyer collected his third league win by two-hitting Bellflower. Moyer was working on a one hitter after 6.1 innings before needing relief help from Terry Watkins.

Excelsior committed 10 errors, allowing six unearned runs—four in the first inning-as Norwalk claimed a 9-0 victory. Daryl Klein struck out 15 and yielded six hits to gain the victory.

Norwalk scored its four runs in the first on four miscues, a passed ball and two walks.

team is underdog

By PAUL McLEOD Staff Writer

For the first time in seven years Long Beach City College is not favored to run away with the state ·gymnastics championship.

Golden West is the team to beat," conceded Viking coach John Draghl.

The Vikings hobble into today's Southern California Conference individual championships at Fullerton State riddled by in-individual championships, (qualifying rounds at noon, finals at 7 p.m.) have no bearing on next Saturday's state meet. At that time the Vikings will battle Golden West, Diablo Valley and Pasadena for its seventh consecutive state title.

'I've got kids who'll pull through," asserted Draghi. "But we've got more injuries this year than ever before."

Top all-around performer James Taylor is out for the year following knee surgery. Also missing is three-event man Joe Snee with a broken foot. Rudy Ynquez who earlier recorded a 9.0 in the high bar, is sidelined with a shoulder injury.

"More guys are hurt, hut these are our top three," explained Draghi. Carl Cruz stepped into Taylor's shoes and finished third at the Long Beach Invitational, at Long Beach State, last weekend.

Draghi hopes all-Americas Elliot Schnee (rings) and Harold Maghe (pommel horse) tune-up today for the state meet. "No individual has won a state event two consecu-tive years," Draghi pointed out. "We're hoping these two guys can break start of today's 28th Newport to Ensenada yacht race. The flotilla of 557 boats will answer a noon starting gun.

The first start at 12 o'clock will be for the multihulls on the inside line and PHRF-A on the outside line. Starts will be at 10-minute intervals in the following order: IOR-A and PHRF-B, 12:10; IOR-B and PHRF-C, 12:20; IOR-C and PHRF-D, 12:30; CCA and PHRF-E, 12:40; MORF-A and PHRF-F, 12:50, and MORF-B, MORA and PHRF-G, 1 p.m.

The first hoats are expected to arrive off the Ensenada jetty by mid-morning on Sunday. Boats finishing after 11 a.m. Monday will not be counted.

L.B. junior bowling

The 11th Long Beach Junior Bowling Association city tournament ends its four-week run at Plaza Lanes today and Sunday with youngsters between the ages of five and 21 participating in singles and doubles events.

Squad times today are 11:30 a.m., 2 and 4:30 p.m., while Sunday squads will be held at 9 and 11:30 a.m., 2 and 4:30 p.m.

A field of more than 750 entered this year's tournament, the largest junior association event in Long Beach for 1975.
